

Bloodborne Pathogens - Protect & Defend

Post-Training Test

1) What is the most common liver disease in the world?

- hepatitis B
- hepatitis C
- hepatitis D

2) Only management and supervisors are allowed access to the company's Exposure Control Plan.

- True
- False

3) Employees determined to have occupational exposure to bloodborne pathogens are eligible to receive the hepatitis B vaccine at no cost to the employee.

- True
- False

4) You should wear heavy rubber gloves when picking up broken glass or needles.

- True
- False

5) Soap and water is effective in decontaminating a work area that has been contaminated with blood or other body fluids.

- True
- False

6) The hepatitis B vaccine can still be effective after an exposure.

- True
- False